TEACH TOGETHER 2020

A Back-to-school Webinar Series for Connecticut Teachers

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN AND PRACTICE

Poetry in America's Teach Together 2020 Webinar Series offers support to middle- and high-school English Language Arts, History, Social Studies, and Art teachers who are working to design flexible lesson plans for the Fall 2020 semester. Developed by Harvard Professor Elisa New and her Poetry in America team, each webinar provides content area and pedagogical instruction for teachers, as well as engaging materials participants can use with their own students—whether teaching online or in the classroom.

FLEXIBLE CURRICULAR MATERIALS

[Preview | <https://bit.ly/2KI7k6V>] Join President Bill Clinton, jazz pianist Herbie Hancock, poet Sonia Sanchez, and a group of students from Harlem in study of Langston Hughes's "Harlem," and then...

[Preview | <https://bit.ly/2XS0mys>] Invite your students to study along with hip hop legend Nas and friends as they discuss Nas's iconic song "N.Y. State of Mind" and try writing their own hip hop lyrics.
