

POETRY IN AMERICA

TEACH TOGETHER 2020

A Back-to-school Webinar Series for Connecticut Teachers

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN AND PRACTICE

Poetry in America's Teach Together 2020 Webinar Series offers support to middle- and high-school English Language Arts, History, Social Studies, and Art teachers who are working to design flexible lesson plans for the Fall 2020 semester. Developed by Harvard Professor Elisa New and her Poetry in America team, each webinar provides content area and pedagogical instruction for teachers, as well as engaging materials participants can use with their own students—whether teaching online or in the classroom.

FLEXIBLE CURRICULAR MATERIALS

[Preview | <https://bit.ly/34Ovwlo>] Join immigrants and immigrant descendants, including American Federation of Teachers President Randi Weingarten, Grammy nominee Regina Spektor, and Dreamer Cristina Jiménez, in exploring Emma Lazarus's "The New Colossus"—the poem inscribed on the Statue of Liberty. And then...

[Preview | <https://bit.ly/2XMhCVI>] Accompany poet Richard Blanco on an illustrated journey across South Florida to explore his classic poem of Cuban immigration, "Looking for the Gulf Motel." Enjoy a special cameo appearance by Gloria Estefan!

Register here: <https://forms.gle/Bi1cvENFq3Ck5S3DA>